

20th April 2023

College, employer & industry collaboration

Neil Dellar - Head of Department Construction Trades
ndellar@bedford.ac.uk

Kieran O'Keeffe - Work placement coordinator kokeeffe@bedford.ac.uk

Tresham College's – Offer and location

- Construction Trades and Building Service Engineering
- T – Level, Construction Site and Building Services Engineer pathways
- Full Time - 16 to 19 yr old
- Apprenticeships
- Adult evening class
- Business Administration, Computer Technology, Accountancy
- Northamptonshire - Corby, Wellingborough and Kettering
- Bedfordshire – Bedford and Kempston

What can Tresham College offer your business?

- Limitless access to talented students that are keen to get real life work experiences through work placements or trials
- Support and guidance on the work experience process and documentation
- Pool of students to choose from for apprenticeships
- Support and guidance on how to onboard an apprentice
- Promotion of your brand and products to circa 200 construction industry entrants
- Support to meet your contract's social impact targets

- Be part of employer forums and industry groups
- Industry expert guest speakers
- Offer construction site work experience
- Offer higher level work experience in an office or project management environment
- Access to pipeline workforce
- Donations of materials that are surplus to contracts
- Sponsorship/banners in key areas