Entry Guide for individual awards

About the Roofscape Design Awards - Individuals

Launched in 2023, the TRA Roofscape Design Awards celebrate ingenuity and technical skills in the roofing sector by recognising people and projects that demonstrate the highest standard in design, innovation, and sustainability in the use of timber trussed rafter roofs.

Three new award categories will be available for 2025 that celebrate excellence in roofing design, focusing on key areas of the industry. These awards recognise the individual's approach to innovation, to health and safety, and dedication to ongoing training and professional development.

Shortlisted individuals will be mentioned across PR and marketing channels, with the winners being showcased in trade publications.

In this guide, you will find tips to help you through the entry form. With the aim of making the entry process as effortless as possible.

Should you have any questions, send us an email to info@tra.org.uk or wing@lizmale.co.uk and we will be able to help.

How to nominate a member of your team

For individual awards (Innovation Champion of the Year, Safety Champion of the Year, and Career Development Champion).

Name of the team member and nominator

Always ensure the names are accurate, as this will be used on all marketing and PR materials.

Description

Please describe the actions or procedures the nominee has implemented or recommended that relate to these areas. Be sure to highlight any innovative or impactful approaches that demonstrate the individual's commitment to excellence.

Contact information

This is very important as the TRA will contact you (the nominator) directly about your entry and attending the TRA AGM and awards ceremony.

We will also need the contact information of your company's marketing department.

The categories

Innovation Champion of the Year

This award recognises an individual who has contributed and leading technological, sustainability, and operational innovation within the trussed rafter industry.

Whether through innovative use of materials, efficiency of production, eco-conscious construction methods, or advocacy for sustainable policies, this individual embodies the future of our sector.

Safety Champion of the Year

The Safety Champion Award celebrates the dedication to maintaining and promoting safe practices within the trussed rafter industry.

This person leads by example, ensuring safe working environments, promoting safety training, and implementing best practices that prioritise the well-being of workers and the public.

Career Development Champion

The Career Development Champion award recognises the remarkable achievements of individuals who are actively showing dedication to their ongoing training and professional development.

This award celebrates their growth, skill development, and dedication throughout 2024, highlighting the progress they have made within the company.
